City of Brampton
Update on COVID-19

After some discussion with the Archdiocese of Toronto, the Region of Peel has decided to rescind the 50-person restriction for places of worship for the present time. We will continue to use the 30% capacity rule which has been in place since June. However, this is contingent on our strictly following the 2-meter social distancing rule and sanitization procedures implemented by the Archdiocese. Other new restrictions will remain in place, such as restricted office hours, staggered work hours for our staff, and no meetings allowed on church property.

NEW FOR 2021 OFFERTORY ENVELOPES

The 2021 Offertory Boxed Envelopes will be made available the first week of Advent. Due to the COVID pandemics, we are taking measures to ensure everyone's safety. We will NOT assign offertory boxed envelopes. ALL PARISHIONERS will receive a NEW offertory envelope number for 2021.

Enclosed in your Offertory boxed envelopes will be a registration form. Please complete the registration form, record your new offertory envelope number and return the form promptly to the parish office. Please write your name and phone number on the first few envelopes that you use. PLEASE DO NOT USE ENVELOPES FROM PAST YEARS.
