SO LONG, FAREWELL & BEST WISHES FR. JIBIN

Dear brothers and sisters,
Three years have passed since I came to St Jerome's parish. I feel like it was just three months. I had a great time with you all here. I thank God Almighty for giving me an opportunity to serve this parish. It was my pleasure to work with Msgr Michael and the parish staff team. Thank you all for the great support. There is nothing more than being loved by my people who took me as a family member. Even though, it was during COVID, we shared our sorrows, happiness, and love in all possible ways. I sincerely thank you all from the bottom of my heart for all the wonderful support and love you gave me, for the wonderful lessons you taught me, for loving me as your own, for your kind words and wonderful gifts, especially which I have received in the past week. I promise that you will be in my prayers and please continue to pray for me.

In Christ Jesus,
Fr. Jibin Joy

It was heartwarming to see so many parishioners come to pay tribute to Fr. Jibin but also to enjoy the spirit of community that we have missed during these difficult Covid times. Appreciate the prayers for "No rain today, Lord." Thank you all for your contributions, support, and participation to a wonderful day.

If you would like to share your pictures from Fr. Jibin's farewell. We would like to put them on our website. So, in sending these pictures to gill@stjromeparish.ca you
